Marshal, having been fried and found guilty of embezzlement, has been sentenced by Judge Hill to five years' imprisonment in the city jail on three different counts; for the first, six months; for the second, one year and six months, and for the third, three years. Why Judge Hill selected the jail and not the penitentiary we are unable to conceive. Jails are not built for the purpose of confining criminals who have been sentenced for long terms, as we understand it, and Judge Hill has no right to put the jail of the city of Jackson to any such purpose.

The Trial of Mr. Belk.

On Tuesday and Wednesday last there was nothing done in the Meridian Enforcement Act trial now pending in the United States Court, owing to the illness of a juror. On yesterday William Turner (colored) was particularly to the meeting of citizens after RADWAY'S READY RELIEF the fire, in which he charged very blood-'riot, and "everlastingly" ran. On the crosskind and friendly to colored people; Frank Williams appears to be a kind man, and is liked by the colored people.

George Mason (col'd)-I live in Meridian; was at my shop the Sunday preceding the riot; heard Hugh Wilson in consultation with Mr. Gould, in Dred Finley's shop; Hugh Wilson said that they were "going to have a meeting Monday—a citizens' meeting monday ing," and "compel certain parties to leave the Rheumatic, Bed-ridden, Infirm, Crippled this was said to Dred Finley; saw Nervous, Neuralgic, or prostrated with dis armed men on Monday evening after the case may suffer fuss commenced; nearly every person was armed; am acquainted with Daniel Price; he taught a colored school; there were some forty or fifty men over here from Alabama at one time, armed with guns, who Inflamation of the Kidneys. said they come to have a trial of Adam Kennard and Mr. Price; he was charged by Inflamation of the Bowels, them with Ku-Kluxing Adam Kennard; a with them, all armed.

of the Meridian Riot two or three weeks Brandy or Bitters as a stimulant. . after the riot occurred; last time I was in Meridian was three weeks before the riot began; these were the colored men that nied me at that time-Dawson Green, Len. Dawson, my son, Stephen Ken-nard, Green Kennard and Jno. Childers; also the following white men: Ed. Battle, Isaac Herd, Mark Sledge, Stephen!Renfran and Thomas Fitzpatrick; the next morning saw Dave Battle, John Trott, Alonozo Carrigan, John D. Lorch, Knapp Kennard, William Cennard, young man Lynn, Zane Hoyt, Geo. Rogers, and others; sun half an hour high when we got to Meridian; Mr. Sledge met a boy he had hired, who had run off, and took him by the collar; Sledge had a gun; didn't do anything else to the boy; took the boy, with his two brothers, and Renfran hit one of them, they were taken to a store in town and tied with white cotton

Clara Anderson, Sandy Lee, Eliza Smith, D. Atley and Frank Hughes, all negroes were examined, but nothing new elicited. A great deal about "blood" and "kill or be killed," etc., and so on, but nothing whatever to prove that the defendant is not a law-abiding citizen.

than the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Since its introduction to public notice, more than twenty years ago, it has been constantly used for every kind of disease or injury to man or beast which can be affected in the Womb, and all weakening and painful by a local application, and so far as its proprietors are aware, it has not failed in a single instance. After so long and successful a term of probation, who will have the benefits of the successful a term of probation, who will have the local its potent power to cure them.

As Hancock county will be hereafter a favorite resort for New Orleans people to settle their little difficulties, we will give them this piece of advice. The object in coming here, is—of course—to get out of Louisiana and escape its stringent dueling laws." As soon as the State of Mississippi is reached, this object is accomplished. The spot where a train on the Chattanooga of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Railroad first strikes Mississippi soil, is at Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure Pearl river bridge, two miles beyond Lookout Station and 40 miles from New Orleans, while Bay St. Louis is 52 miles. There is therefore no necessity to go further than 40 miles, at Pearl river bridge. If dueling parties will disembark right there, (which no doubt the obliging conors will readily facilitate.) they can fight con amore under some splendid liveoaks, at the mouth of a deep-rolling river, almost within a stone's throw of the cresting waves of the Gulf, with no policeman within 40 miles in either direction, and no human beings nearer than Grand Plains Station. As the place described belongs to the editor of this paper, he hereby readily grants permission to any and all to go there and "have it out," and he tenders a special invitation to Gov. Warmoth and Mr. Pepe Llula to settle that old grudge there.
